

for birds
for people
for ever

DUNGENESS MOTH SEASON 2006

Saturday 20 May at 7.30pm

'The Conservation of Rare Moths in South-east England'. A talk by Tony Davis, Moth Conservation Officer at Butterfly Conservation. Traps will be run.

Saturday 24 June 9.30am – 11.30am

Moth morning with Sean Clancy of Atropos.

Saturday 15 July 9.30am – 11.30am

Moth morning with Barry Banson, local moth expert.

Saturday, 5 August 8.30pm till late and

Sunday, 6 August 9.30am – 11.30am

Saturday Night and Sunday Morning with RSPB Site Manager Bob Gomes and Warden Pete Akers. Traps will be run until late in the Visitor Centre area. One fee includes both days.

Saturday, 26 August 9.30am -11.30am

Moth morning with Paul King, Josh Jones and Reece Jones.

Saturday, 23 September at 7.30pm

National Moth Night with David Walker, Dungeness Bird Observatory Warden.

Venue

All meetings will start at the new classroom in the Visitor Centre.

Booking and costs

RSPB members £2.50,

Junior members £1.

Members Season ticket

Adults £12.50

Juniors £5

Non-members £5

Concessions £4,

Children £2.

Non-members Season ticket

Adults £25

Concessions £20

Children £10

For further information and booking please call 01797 320588, enquire at the Visitor Centre or email dungeness@rspb.org.

How to find us

The reserve is one mile south of Lydd and is signposted off the Lydd-Dungeness road. Bus service 12 from Lydd or Folkestone stops on request at the reserve entrance. The Visitor Centre is one mile down the track from the entrance.

For information on moths of the area go to: www.mothsofdungeness.co.uk

Registered Charity No.207076